

F. FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

"A dinner lubricates business"

unless the chairs are uncomfortable; and the New Year guests should have everything— even chairs—to their taste."

Our dining-chairs are comfortable, well-made and handsome. The backs have the right incline, and the seats are broad. The arms are beautiful and their ornamentation—carving or inlay, is refined and elegant.

Some are rush or wood seats; others are upholstered in tapestry or leather. Special reductions now for those whose generosity has outrun their balances.
